Assistant Principal
Athletic Director

June 1980

Dr. David A. Johnson
Principal

Dear Reader,

Youthful shouts of joy, cries of despair and whispers of uncertainty are with us in our high school days; but soon, too soon, voices become echoes of the past.

Nurture these voices and rejoice with songs of hope. The sound of the future beckons us to step forth and dance to our songs. Though the voices may soon turn to echoes, and the echoes die away, memories will ever speak of days with songs of hope in our hearts and voices of dreams on our lips.

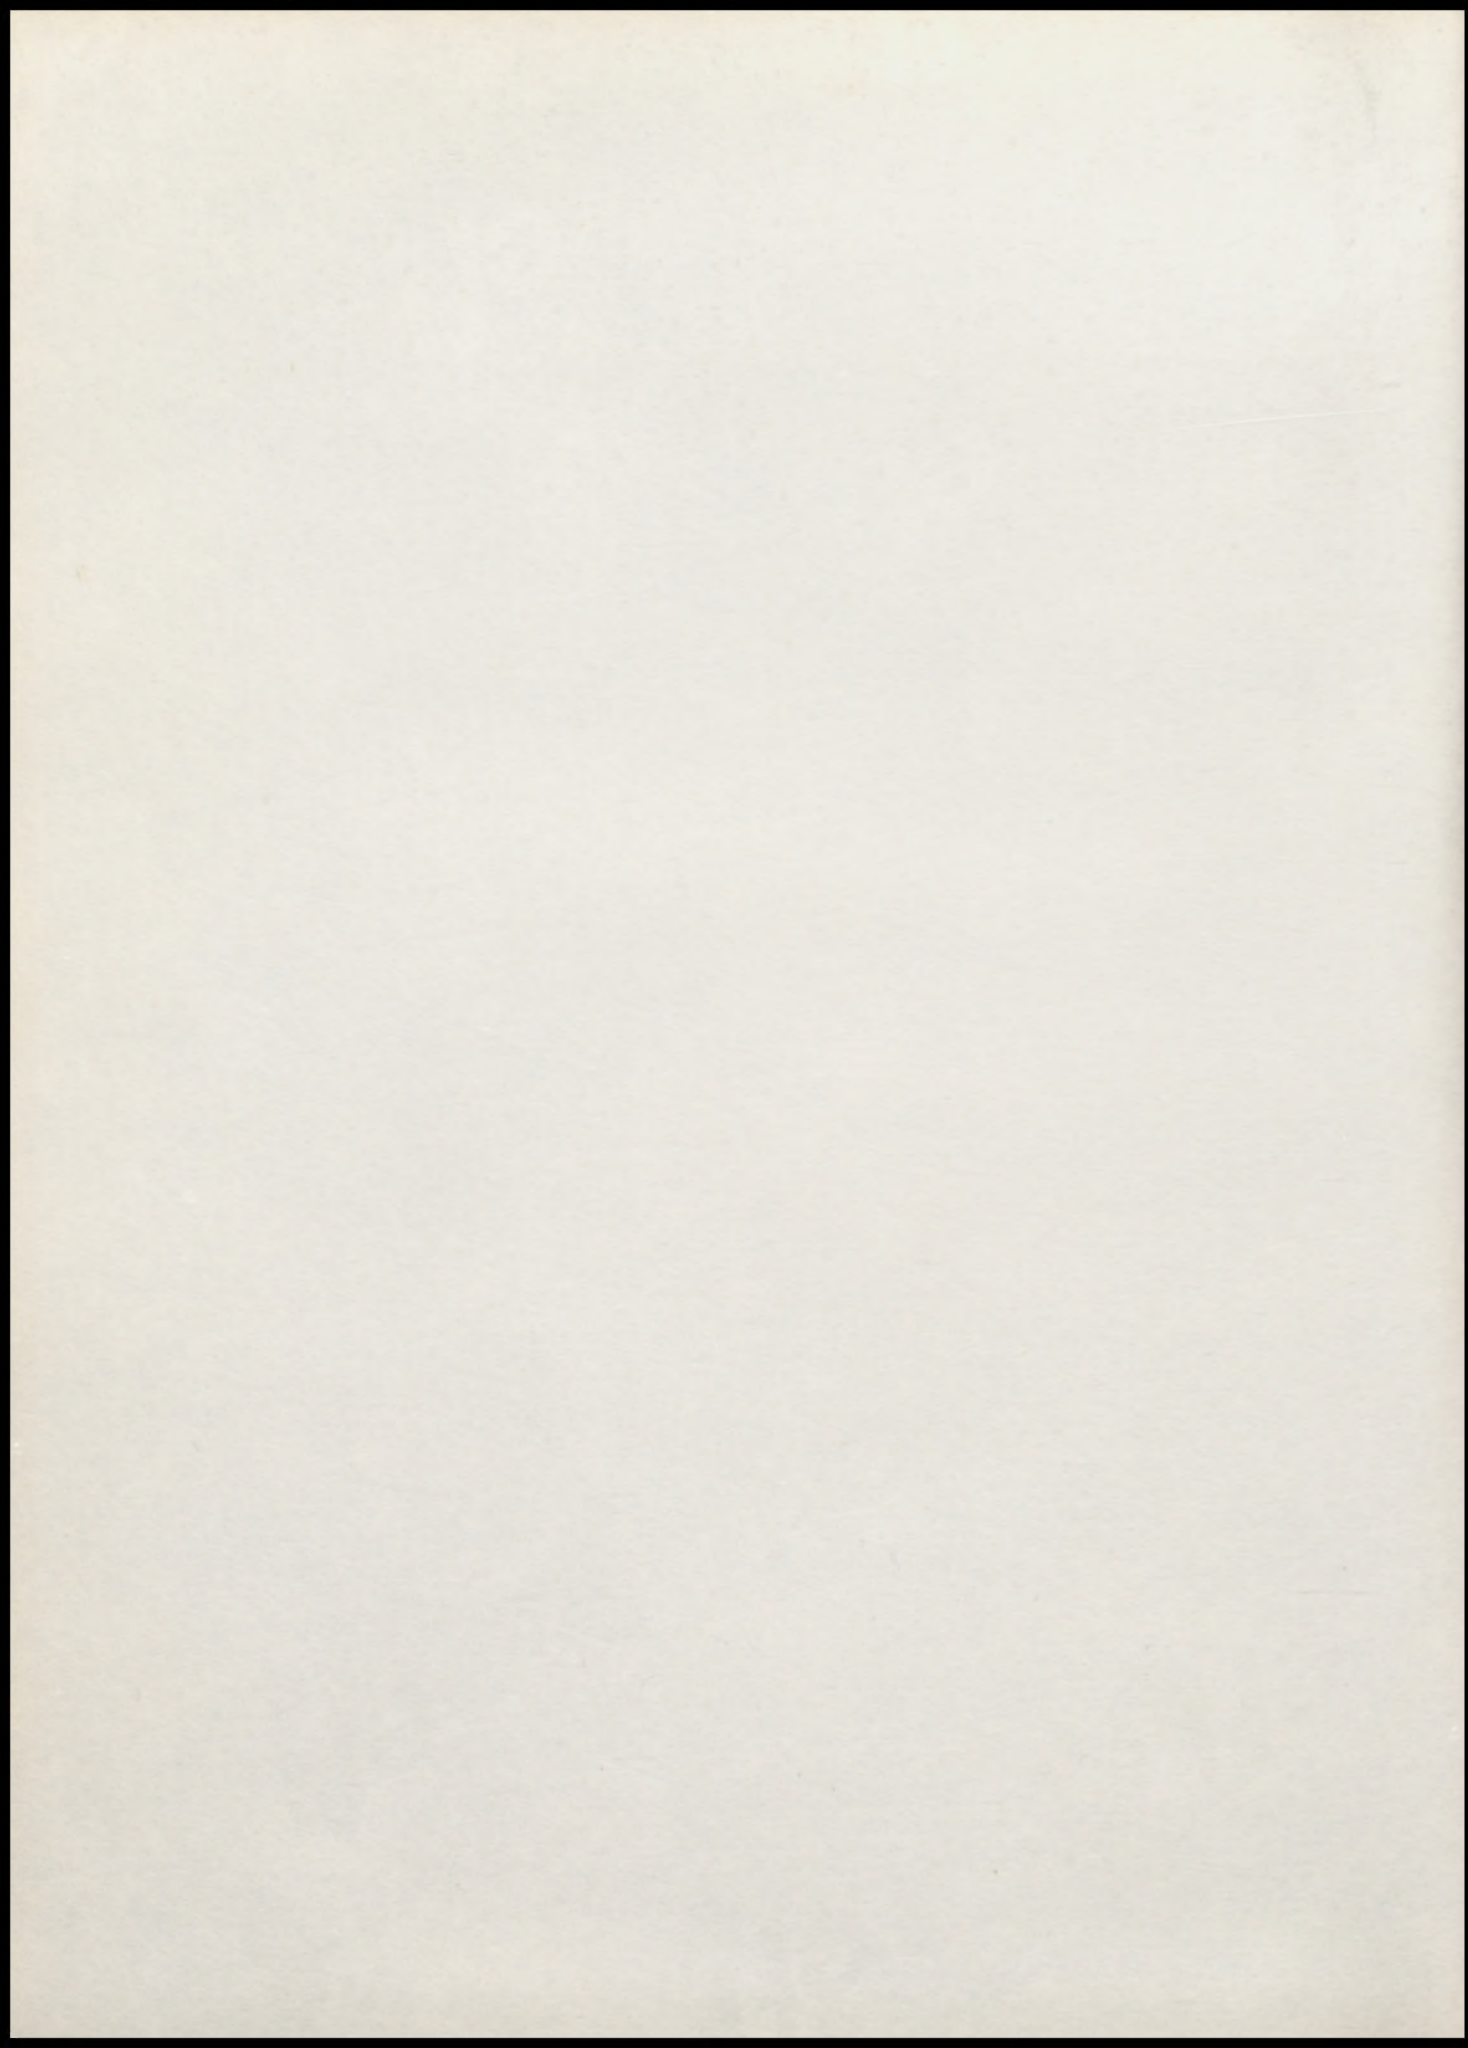

Very truly yours,

1980 Sagitta

Voices Yet to be Heard .....	viii

Like wisdom's lamp and triumph's jubilation, let your light shine and your voice be heard.

Within each person is a voice revealing lifelong dreams.

Hush, take time to listen.

Bring discord into Harmony.

*There are those who care to speak,
and those who remain silent;*

*Each has a story
to tell.*

*Sigh with life's sorrows,
Whisper dreams of longing.*

*Sing joys of the heart;
Shout
of a bright future!*

To Mrs. Margaret Corcoran ... a teacher with dignity ... an esteemed lady in the eyes of our entire school community ... whose poise, wisdom and character inspire students and colleagues ... in love, respect and gratitude for her tireless efforts on our behalf, we dedicate the 1980 Sagitta.

Let our voices sound in appreciation to Mrs. Rollet and Mr. Katulka for their devotion, inspiration, and vibrant spirit. With words of encouragement and reassurance, they have given us confidence to move forward with high expectations toward tomorrow.

In Memoriam

Mrs. Barbara Ganley, a teacher, confidante, and friend to countless Suffield students from 1943 to 1973. We cherish her memory in gratitude, joy, and love.

And they said Suffield was a quiet town.

But Goodrich doesn't have a blimp!

I've got a date with a cute chick tonight.

Hello, is this the company that recycles paper?

I hope it's not booby trapped.

That ain't no duck, Groucho.

If I could just remember how this gizmo went together...

Now people, I'm not as mean as I look.

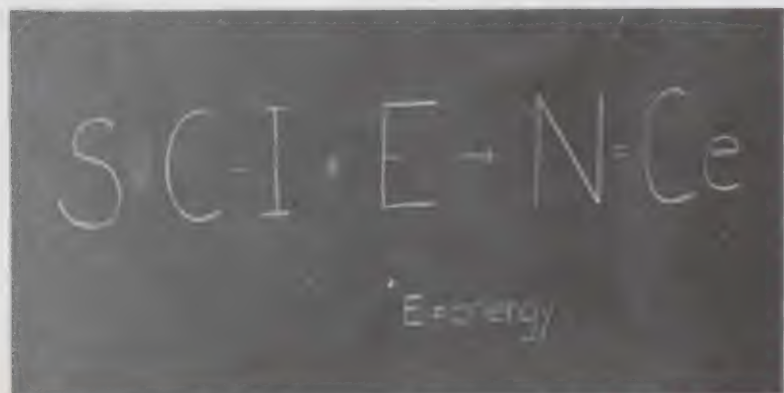

I thought I heard a locker slam out here.

We're on the verge of a cure for Grouse

That was the sixth time I blew the tiles off the ceiling.

No, you don't mix a 100% starch solution and expect a clear liquid.

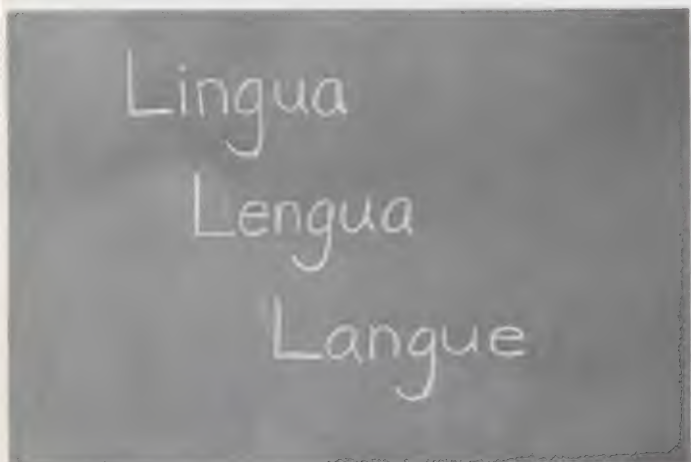

Smells like fresh ground coffee, tastes like

Kids these days!

Five little fishes and a mama fish too...

Maybe Latin would be more fun.

John Travolta, eat your heart out!

20 people, 15 cents a cup = $... plus.

"If? No. If round, corn bread r?"

Pick a card, any card.

The good guys always win.

I excel at the SQ3R.

One lies, and the other swears to it.

I don't get mad. I get even.

You call this a work of art?

Okay, stop the clay fight.

Don't you dare!

Say what!

Now, do I look like a drill sergeant?

I didn't know the gum was loaded!

Who put the foot powder in my coffee!

I've never seen anything like it.

I didn't think I'd ever see a purple cow.

Hey Groucho, that's a good imitation of Wanat.

You're not supposed to head a ballbearing. (just a soccer ball).

Mr. President. Future Farmers. Ladies and Gentlemen ...

The bold Bodini.

And you expect me to believe that?

I told you not to make it so big.

Melts in your mouth, not in your hands.

They all think I can read these little scribbles.

I saw that one.

How to succeed in business.

Me, Dewey, and youy.

I could have sworn it was here yes terday.

Can you tell which dish detergent I use by the look of my hands.

Somewhere over the rainbow . . .

Yes, I have ten special cases in my mental ward.

This library really runs me raggedy.

Julia Child has nothing on me.

It's silly with a C and an E!

Hey, my team's in first place.

A victim of the full moon syndrome.

I'm on time. where's my pupil?

Wait till I get you!

Sorry, I don't do windows.

How about Thursday afternoon at 2:00?

Oh sure!!

Seems to me I've heard that song before.

I don't really think so.

Don't bust my chops!

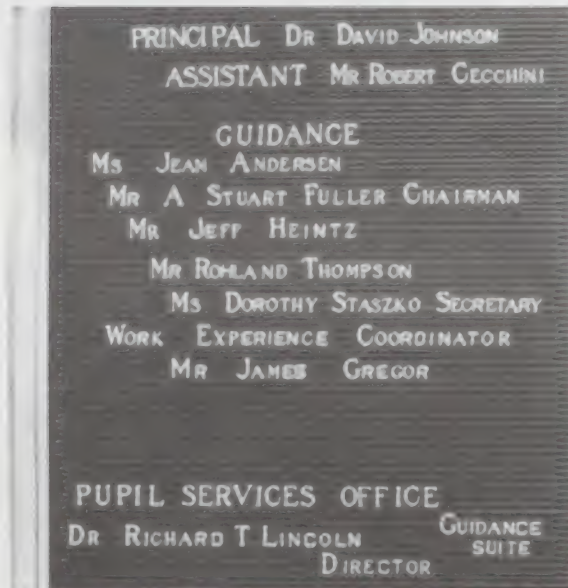

You've got to be kidding me!

At 5 p.m. I'm not ready to reschedule your classes.

Snow shoe, gentlemen!

My softball girls did what?

No, I'm not from Johnson & Johnson.

Hi, there!

A loaf of bread, a gallon of milk ... yes dear.

Hooray! We made our deadline.

UConn is not in Alaska.

Okay guys, let mother tell you one more time.

Get the net... Get the net!!

I'd give this magazine a C+.

I know it's here somewhere.

Who ever heard of speed reading lullabies?

O.K., ... back to the books.

That's not the feedback I had in mind.

I really don't think that's necessary.

Now that I'm here, what do I do?

Earth to Pio, come in, come in Mr. Pio.

Isn't this the 12th schedule change you've made this quarter?

Wait till I get my hands on that goat!

I know, another set of lights on.

Retype the entire case study by tomorrow?!

You don't expect me to believe that!

I've recorded all the heating complaints, and I'm steaming.

Only 8,550 more tiles to go.

What's that?!

Hi everybody, behave yourselves now.

Culinary Experts

Stas, it's my turn to empty the trash!

Women's work is never done.

I could have made it big at M.G.M.

CLASS HISTORY

Although we stepped silently into our freshman year, we decided to come out of our shells early and let our voices be heard. Our spirit and our favorites began to emerge by the time our BLUE class jackets arrived. Through the year we danced happily to our favorite tunes from BILLY JOEL and LINDA RONSTADT and of course our favorite song, "RENEGADE." As freshmen we didn't care if we came in third at the Pep-Rally; we knew we were working our way to the top.

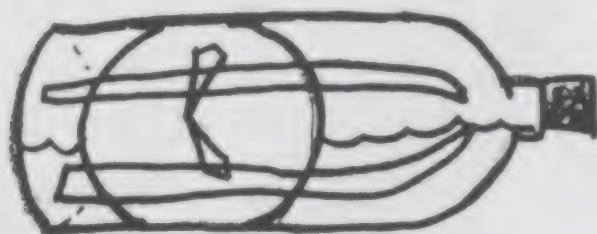

As "silly Sophomores" our cheerful grins carried us through the year. We HEIGHTENED our class spirit with the tradition of Class Rings (a bar of soap for swollen fingers), a class trip, donut sales, and the unforgettable Slave Day. Determined to prove to the entire school we were #1, we yelled our way to second place in the Pep-Rally.

AND FAVORITES

By September 1978 we had not just become Juniors, we were UPPERCLASSMEN. We made great use of this impressive title by successfully selling those delicious candy bars (followed by tons of Clearasil). In this most progressive year we not only participated but cheered both Varsity Soccer and Hockey teams to state championships, but we also pulled together as a class to prove we were the best when we captured our Pep-Rally victory. Our magical Jr. Prom theme "If," led toward thoughts of our rapidly approaching Senior year.

Our SUMMER dreams of riding around in a CORVETTE listening to BEACH BOYS songs had now disappeared. With the approach of fall, we had more realistic dreams to achieve. Among these were college acceptances and graduation. Somehow the once so important trips to McDONALD'S and PIZZA lunches didn't seem to phase us. We had a magazine sale to undertake, a yearbook to publish, and a Donkey Basketball game to play. As a class we cherished our vanishing moments of our Senior Sno-Ball; If only we could hold "TIME IN A BOTTLE." Before we knew it the good-byes had been said, yearbooks were signed, and with voices once more subdued, we anxiously awaited our first step into the world yet to be explored.

CLASS

The class of 1980 decides to hold their fifteenth class reunion in Suffield at the restaurant owned by KEITH BERTE. Suddenly, an unexpected blizzard cripples Suffield. The entire class, under the supervision of Senator ROBERT PACKARD and his aide, MARCIA GEARY, volunteers its services during the emergency.

Engineers JAY WATERMAN, AL KLESCZEWSKI, CHRISSY DILKO, JEFF MLINEK, STEVE NORCROSS, carpenter TROY VIETS, along with architects BILL HEYSE AND CATHIE PSHOLKA, plan to design igloos for the stranded motorists. Meanwhile, those who are marooned are being entertained in the barns of farmers LISA BAZYK and MARK KELLOGG. Singers LESLIE HARDIN and TERRY MATTHEWS captivate the audience with their lovely voices while model TONETTE VAUGHT dazzles them with the latest fashions. There are some slow moments while presidential candidates LAURA SCHULTE, KATHY BENSON, and PETER GARDOCKI give their speeches, but the music of the MARCIA GEARY Trio, featuring JEAN ANASTASIA and the infamous trumpeter LEE TANGUAY, bring the audience back to life.

Using kerosene lanterns, expert lighting technician STEVE MARKOWSKI, cleverly illuminates the darkened barns so that renowned dramatic artists, KATHY VARHOLAK, LINDA BRYCE, AND JEFF ELEVELD (directed by DORTHY BRUYETTE) can perform a play based on the best selling novel, The Class of '80, by LIZ LATHROP.

Meanwhile, U.S. Air Force General, DOREEN KENNEDY and her squadron flies to the rescue as doctors HOLLY FITCH, MARIA FRANK, ROB MCCARTHY and BILL POWERS with nurses TAMMY MILLS and NANCY SIMMONS parachute to JOY FALKOWSKI'S sports shop and pick up skis on which they will reach needy survivors. Neighboring kennel owner KATHY MALEC, assisted by animal management expert MELANIE RUTZ, provides Alaskan huskies to pull toboggans of supplies driven by explorers DONNY LOWNDS and MARK SHERMAN, who are employed by travel agent JEFF DAVID.

The medical group proceeds to the new YMCA where snowbound families are being sheltered. Pharmacists JOE D'ALESSIO, and JENNIFER OSOWIECKI bring more drugs and equipment to the doctors. Veterinarian MISSY COPPOLO, assisted by LISA KNOX, stand by for emergency surgery on any hurt animals.

Awaiting medical treatment is secretary PAM FORD, who accidentally stabbed herself with a nail file when the lights went off. She wonders how she'll explain the unfinished briefs to her bosses, attorneys BETH DAHMS and JEFF DOWD. Mafia leader LARRY TAVINO also wounded himself by slipping on a piece of ice by his limousine and causing the machine gun in the inner pocket of his pin-striped suit to misfire.

As night draws near, social workers TERI CIRILLO, NANCY GARDOCKI, LORI MASLOSKI, and JENNIFER RINK gather blankets and bedding for those who will be spending the night at the shelter.

PROPHECY

locate parents thought to be trapped in business offices.

LISA BRODER finally reaches SHAWN DAVIS by phone. Davis is now business administrator of the Leroux Corporation owned by KATHY LEROUX. He tells her that secretary, SUE PHILLIPS, and staff members EDGAR MORGANWECK and KEITH PURKIS are fine, but JAYCE EDWARDS is trapped in the basement with SUE BLANCHARD, along with plumber BOB PARNELL and welder STEVE NYSER.

Back at the restaurant dietician KATHY MARTIN has helped arrange a buffet for the volunteers. At one table, psychologists MARTHA BROME, RON McCLELLAND, medical technicians TERRY KULINA, JACKIE SAMSEL and DEBBIE MORIN and physical therapists GAIL BRACKETT, CARYN GOODWIN, and ROBIN HINCKLEY sit down after an exhausting morning. At another table geologist KEVIN CHASE, and astronomer DAVID SHINKEVICH listen intently as interior decorator GLORIA CHARLAND tells of her recent experiences decorating the mansion of world famous artist JON KLASE. As soon as dinner is over electrician STEVE STEWART lowers everyone's spirits by announcing that the power will be out for some time. The unhappy sighs of computer programmers JOHN DALEY, MIKE LONGO and DIANE VAUGHAN can be heard above the voices of accountants RON ANDREWS, CINDY GEBHART, JUANA PRUDE, BARB SCHILE, STAN ZYGMUNT, PAT WILESKY, and ELAINE RICHARDS as they argue over who makes more money. The only happy one in the group seems to be DAVID MANN who has just invested in snowshoes.

Hairdressers LINDA FABRIZI and BARB ANNIS sit furtively in a corner hiding from two women who have purple streaked hair to complement their strawberry facials. (In the blackout, they used the wrong chemicals). Marketing expert LYNDIA McKENZIE finally finds a phone line open and cancels an appointment with DAVID LIANA to have her snow tires removed.

At another table STEVE PELLETIER and MARK SULLIVAN sit pouting because they won't make it to the season's opening baseball game. Suddenly there is a roaring noise outside, everyone dashes to the windows. What could it be?

In a plane over Indianapolis en route to the class of '80 reunion, we find pilots LEE CHAPMAN, and JOHN SHELANSKAS, transporting mild-mannered landscaper JOHN PURDY with race car drivers BOB BAUCHERIO and PETER GUNN. Dashing from the cockpit, comes stewardess ROSEMARY GUPTON with the announcement that a blizzard has hit Suffield.

MR. PURDY whispers something in her ear, "Would you like us to land by a phone booth?" she asks. "No" he says, "I carry my own equipment just show me the storage room."

In a minute, leaping out of the room comes superplow.

When the plane lands in a field close to the restaurant, superplow leaps out and plows a path to the restaurant. Soon everyone in the restaurant, including BARB ANNIS and LINDA FABRIZI disguised in ski masks, boards the plane. Superplow then plows a runway so the plane can fly to the YMCA, the barns and the office buildings to rescue others.

From here the plane flies to Bermuda where they will stay until Suffield is back to normal. Writer KIM STUART will surely have ample human interest material to incorporate into her up-coming novel, What-ever Happened to Our Senior Class? All concerned enjoy a sense of proud satisfaction that once again, as in the '79 tornado, the unified effort, talent, and selfless dedication of the Class of '80 has come through.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1980

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream — and not make dreams your master;
If you can think — and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings — nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it.*

Relieves Congestion

Walk around Griffin Office Center and chances are you'll experience a business park unlike any other.

Pines rising at your window. Acres of quiet New England countryside beginning right across the street. Hiking trails, woodland ponds, and uncontested views of heaven and earth.

You can't help but feel better working here. This is Griffin Office Center, a master-planned business park that's luxurious. Remarkably accessible. And spacious – there's enough elbow room to satisfy your present business as well as any future expansions.

And with neighboring Springfield and Hartford, the financial and insurance center of New England, easy commutes, Griffin Office Center is the perfect setting for the business going places – it's just a stone's throw from Bradley International Airport. Two major Interstate Highways. And Amtrak facilities in downtown Hartford.

Already the choice of major corporations such as Connecticut General, Combustion Engineering, Rolls Royce, and The Hartford-ITT, it can be the right choice for you.

For more information call: Leonard Sucsy or Richard Bauer at 203/688-7501. Or write Culbro Land Resources, Inc.

You'll breathe easier for it.

Dear Reader,

Youthful shouts of joy, cries of despair and whispers of uncertainty are with us in our high school days; but soon, too soon, voices become echoes of the past.

Nurture these voices and rejoice with songs of hope. The sound of the future beckons us to step forth and dance to our songs. Though the voices may soon turn to echoes, and the echoes die away, memories will ever speak of days with songs of hope in our hearts and voices of dreams on our lips.

Very truly yours,
